LEON BOSCH

"I know he can play anything to be found in the repertoire for solo Double Bass for he is a true virtuoso." Sir Charles Groves

REBECA OMORDIA

"Rebeca's technique knows no bounds but, more importantly, she plays with a depth of insight and understanding which is all too rare today." Julian Lloyd Webber

I MUSICANTI

"I Musicanti embodies the universally cherished ideal of total artistic freedom and unrestrained self-expression." Leon Bosch

Acclaimed bass player, Leon Bosch has devised a programme to showcase the double bass in all its shades of glory, from virtuoso solo instrument to thrilling ensemble player. This evening's concert is bookended by Bosch's own acclaimed ensemble I Musicanti, who will open the concert with the London premiere of Bottesini's Grand Quintet in C, and end the evening with Dvořák's great Quintet in G. In between, accompanied by the award-winning pianist Rebeca Omordia, he will play a stunning commission entitled Shosholoza by Roxanna Panufnik, which incorporates South African traditional songs, Leon's own transcription of Beethoven's Horn Sonata Opus 17 and the unashamedly virtuosic fantasy on theme's from Bellini's 'La Sonnambula' by Bottesini.
